

Michigan State University Panhellenic Council Code of Ethics and Values

Article I. Purpose

This Code of Ethics and Values provides a guide by which all active sorority members and potential new members of the Michigan State University Panhellenic community shall strive to uphold. This Code of Ethics and Values was created to maintain constant trust, support, and mutual respect amongst all Panhellenic women and the Michigan State University Fraternity and Sorority community. It is the intention of Panhellenic Council to promote the safest atmosphere possible for both chapter members and potential new members. We aim to elevate the standard of Panhellenic women by supporting their actions as well as encouraging them to represent the Fraternity and Sorority community with pride and dignity.

Article II. Values

The Panhellenic Council is committed to relationships built on trust through transparency, accountability, and mutual respect. Innovation and our core values of friendship, leadership, service, knowledge, integrity, and community guide us in fulfilling our mission.

Article III. Standards of Ethical Conduct in Recruitment

- A. It is appropriate for Panhellenic women to have conversations about the general Panhellenic experience outside of formal recruitment functions in the normal course of their day.

- B. It is not appropriate to seek out potential new members for conversation pertaining to anything outside of the general Panhellenic experience during formal recruitment. Any form of contact Panhellenic, FSL, & Recruitment related will be considered inappropriate.
- C. It is not appropriate for Panhellenic women to advertise their specific chapter before or during Fall Formal Recruitment outside of formal recruitment events. Conversations should be directed towards the overall Panhellenic experience.
- Chapters can say “(Chapter) wants you to Go Greek!” or “(Chapter) wants you to go Panhellenic!”
 - Chapters cannot say “Go (Chapter)!”
 - Chapters or active members cannot post videos of any type (Instagram Reels, Tik Toks, Youtube, etc) for self promotion. We will only be utilizing the Panhellenic made recruitment videos provided.
- D. It is not appropriate to discuss the membership selection process with anyone, members or nonmembers, (invitations to the next phase, comments such as “see you tomorrow” to a potential new member, bid promising, etc.) outside of a formal chapter meeting.
- E. It is always appropriate to provide completely honest answers to a potential new member’s questions as long as it does not violate any of the recruitment rules or any standing rules in the Code of Ethics and Values.
- F. It is always appropriate to provide GPA requirements, live-in requirements, and transparency about financial costs with a Potential New Member that pertains to that chapter.
- G. It is not appropriate to initiate physical contact of any kind (hugs, touching backs, shoulders, arms, etc.)
- H. It is appropriate to refer a potential new member to her Recruitment Guide or Panhellenic Executive Board Member when she asks about Continuous Open Bidding or Single Intentional Preference. It is not appropriate to discuss Single Intentional Preference and/or COB, or to deny that it happens.
- I. It is not appropriate to mention or discuss a chapter other than your own during the recruitment process.

- J. It is appropriate for chapter women to wear one's own letters or designation, as long as they positively represent the Panhellenic experience. It is not appropriate to wear men's chapter letters or designation until after formal recruitment.
- K. It is not appropriate to mention men (outside of family members) or the use of drugs and/or alcohol in any way during the recruitment of new members (5 B's; Boys, Bills, Biden, Booze, & Bible). Any space where potential new members are being recruited must be void of men's fraternity letters and alcohol/drugs this includes but is not limited to paraphernalia and pictures.
- L. It is not appropriate for an active member of a Panhellenic organization to go into any official men's fraternity chapter house or annex, 24 hours before PNM Orientation through 24 hours after the start of bid day.
- M. It is not appropriate for Panhellenic women to participate in IFC fraternity recruitment events at any time.
- N. It is not appropriate to give a potential new member a gift including, but not limited to, items from a chapter facility, virtual correspondences, personal letters, cups, flowers, etc. until after bids have been distributed.
- O. It is not appropriate to discriminate against and/or make a PNM uncomfortable: Including, but not limited to, bias comments in regards to a PNM's religion, race, social identity, ability, sexual orientation, etc.

Article IV. Good Faith

It is recognized that this policy cannot address, in specific fashion, all possible situations that may take place. When this policy is not detailed on a particular point, member chapters are expected to conduct their events in the spirit of social responsibility expressed in this Code of Ethics and Values.

- A. If the inter/national organization of a chapter requires their chapters to have some additional risk management regulations, full compliance with those policies must be demonstrated.

Article V. Amendment of the Code of Ethics and Values

The MSU Panhellenic Code of Ethics and Values may be amended at any regular or special meeting of the Michigan State University Panhellenic Council by a two-thirds delegate vote, provided that the proposed amendment has been announced and submitted in writing at the previous regular meeting allowing an opportunity for any chapter input.

- A. Any chapter member of the Panhellenic Council in good standing with the Panhellenic Council may introduce an amendment to this policy.

For more information about this policy, please contact:

The Panhellenic Executive Vice President

pcexecutivevp@greeklife.msu.edu

Last revised by

Isabella Stephanoff

Panhellenic Executive VP

February 2024